CHASKA COMMUNITY CENTER AUDITORIUM GUIDELINE

RESERVATIONS

Reservations of the Auditorium in the Chaska Community Center will be handled by an application process. The person or group wishing to use the facilities will be required to fill out an application form with the details of the event. Appropriate fees must accompany applications; no reservations will be made over the phone. Do not consider the space reserved to your group until you receive your Facility Permit. Application forms will be processed on a first come, first served basis as far as application and fees received. Reservations cannot be made more than a year in advance.

The City of Chaska reserves the right to book events in the Auditorium components anytime throughout the process, as well as the right to negotiate with all groups to make the best use of time available. There may be times when groups will have to compromise requests to accommodate as many activities as possible.

User groups must be as specific as possible when requesting space in the Auditorium. Users will get the room that they request for the time that they requested it only. Other groups will be scheduled around and in between reservations, as space is available. User groups accept responsibility for items left behind for another rehearsal or performance.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF USERS

When using any component in the Chaska Community Center Auditorium, users must abide by the following policies:

- “Leave it the way you found it” Policy – Groups will be required to leave the Auditorium and other requested spaces the way they found them when they are done for the day; that includes picking up left over programs, tickets, garbage, etc. When the performance is finished, they must clear all spaces of props, sets and scenery unless otherwise arranged with CCC staff.

These pieces can be left on the stage only if they do not protrude beyond the black stage curtain. Limited space is also available in the set construction/receiving area for storage of props, sets and scenery. Please consider this lack of space when booking a large production or a production with immobile set pieces. User groups must have all of their belongings out of the CCC no later than one week after final performance. Anything left behind will be disposed of by CCC staff at the group’s expense. The CCC is not responsible for theft or damage to items left overnight at the CCC.

- Stage – Groups are not allowed to paint the wood stage floor! It is recommended that all painting of set pieces be done in the set construction/receiving room. Any spilled paint must be cleaned up immediately. Users will be responsible for any repairs needed to be done as a result of paint on the wood stage floor.
- Unused Paint – Unused paint in cans cannot be disposed of in dumpsters. Groups will be responsible for disposing of their own unused paint and other toxic substances, or disposal costs will be deducted from the damage deposit.
- Theatrical Equipment Use Policy –user groups must provide an individual(s) with experience and knowledge in theatrical equipment use. Any adjustments made to the rigging, sound, or lights, must be done so by trained individuals. The CCC does not have a tech person on staff. Groups will be responsible for returning rigging to original state and lights to a general wash.

- Piano – Groups requesting the use of the piano must be specific with their dates and times on the application form. Users should not assume that the piano will be available with the reservation of a certain area, unless indicated so on the rental application form. The piano will be scheduled on a first come, first served basis. The CCC will have the piano tuned on a quarterly basis. The piano can be tuned outside of this schedule at the user group's expense.
- Orchestra Pit – The orchestra pit cover is complicated and time consuming to take on and off. The cover will be on unless groups request otherwise. The pit cover cannot come off any earlier than two weeks prior to the first performance. Group is responsible for requesting specific dates cover should be removed at the time of reservation.
- Gallery Exhibits – Any person displaying art in the Gallery space will be required to sign a release form, releasing the City of Chaska from liability for loss, theft or damage. If interested in hanging in the Art Gallery, please contact Sydney Seiffert at (952) 227-7752.
